

H5F – HEARING OFFICER

JULY 25, 2002

Title/Class Code	Education/Experience/Licensure/Certification	Substitutions
HEARINGS OFFICER I H5F1IX	Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university and two years of professional experience in the criminal or civil justice areas, dispute resolution, or as an adjudicator or practicing attorney.	A JD or LLB degree may be substituted for the required education and experience. Work experience in the above fields or as a paralegal may be substituted year-for-year for the required education. Additional work experience in the subject matter area of the hearings may substitute for the bachelor's degree on a year-for-year basis.
HEARINGS OFFICER II H5F2TX	Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university and three years of professional experience in the criminal or civil justice areas, dispute resolution, or as an adjudicator or practicing attorney.	A JD or LLB degree may be substituted for the required education and two years of the required experience. Work experience in the above fields or as a paralegal may be substituted year-for-year for the required education. Additional work experience in the subject matter area of the hearings may substitute for the bachelor's degree on a year-for-year basis.
HEARINGS OFFICER III H5F3XX	Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university and five years of professional experience in criminal justice, civil justice, or dispute resolution which included two years as an adjudicator or practicing attorney.	A JD or LLB degree may be substituted for the required education and two years of the required experience. Experience in the above fields or as a paralegal may be substituted year-for-year for the required education.